

Privacy Statement

- This Privacy Statement explains how personal information supplied by you to Dorset Blind Association through this web site is used.
- You do not need to provide personal information in order to use this web site. Dorset Blind Association will only receive your personal information as a result of you using this web site if you choose to email your details to Dorset Blind Association.
- Dorset Blind Association respects your right to privacy. Any personal information which you give to Dorset Blind Association will be used solely for the purpose of providing you with information about Dorset Blind Association's services, to update and enhance Dorset Blind Association's records and where relevant to provide you with services.
- Your private information will be treated as confidential and reasonable security steps taken in relation to it.
- Dorset Blind Association will not sell or otherwise give away your private information to any third party except to the extent necessary to provide you with the services you request or as required by law.
- If your personal information changes, please help Dorset Blind Association keep your information up to date by informing us of any changes.
- Dorset Blind Association reserves the right to change this Statement at any time by posting an amended version on this site. This Privacy Statement is not intended to, nor does it create any contractual or other legal rights.

If you wish to access or correct or delete any of your personal data held by Dorset Blind Association, or if you have any questions concerning this Privacy Statement please contact Dorset Blind Association at info@dorsetblind.org.uk